

TAMIKA D. HOLMES, MBA, MHRM

Servant-Leader

Divine Consulting Firm, LLC

About Tamika D. Holmes

Tamika D. Holmes, the driving force behind Divine Consulting Firm, LLC, possesses a rich history of over two decades in career, business, and nonprofit education and development. With a background in Human Resource Management, Business Administration, and Nonprofit Management, Tamika seamlessly combines her extensive academic achievements with her unwavering passion for supporting individuals and organizations in realizing their full potential.

Tamika's dedication shines through her diverse educational pursuits, including a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, dual Master's in Business Administration with Resource Management, and ongoing pursuit of a Doctorate in Educational Leadership and Organizational Innovation. Her commitment extends beyond academia, as she leverages her experience to lead strategic planning sessions and spearhead projects that enrich career development and training programs.

Community Care Development Network (CCDN):

As the Founder and Executive Director of the Community Care Development Network (CCDN), a 501c3 nonprofit organization, Tamika extends her impact to the community. CCDN's comprehensive initiatives encompass family and life services, youth advocacy, mentoring, educational support, and community outreach. Among its standout programs are the Life Services Program, assisting thousands of families monthly with essential human support services, and the Inspire Education Academy, aiding youth and young adults in attaining their educational and career goals.

A Commitment to Growth:

Tamika's journey from her challenging upbringing fuels her passion for facilitating change and uplifting others. Her dedication, integrity, and hard work underpin her extensive expertise in career education and development, business strategy, nonprofit management, strategic planning, and education. Through Divine Consulting Firm, LLC, Tamika's offerings provide invaluable guidance and support in business, nonprofit, and career development.

With a resolute focus on serving the community, small business owners, and nonprofit leaders, Tamika embodies a creative and zealous desire to empower others. Her dedication culminated in establishing Divine Consulting Firm, LLC, which provides exceptional educational support across various domains.

In conclusion, Divine Consulting Firm, LLC, led by Tamika D. Holmes, is a beacon of expertise and empowerment in career, business, and nonprofit education. Tamika's exceptional journey, combined with her academic prowess and community-centric philosophy, continues to impact individuals and organizations, inspiring them to reach new heights of success.